The East Anglian Carriage Driving Group Ltd

Club Safety Policy

The East Anglian Carriage Driving Group Ltd is a voluntary club that promotes carriage driving and carriage driving events in England. The Club is affiliated to the British Horse Driving Trials Association. The Club recognises that when organising and running events, the safety of its members, supporters, and the general public is of great importance.

To this end the club:

- Expects all its members to show consideration for matters of safety, relating to both themselves and others, at all Club events and to comply with all reasonable requests relating to safety from Event Organisers.
  - Encourages its members to consider safety through articles and correspondence in the Club newsletter and website.
  - The club committee includes a safety officer who is responsible for coordinating safety within the club, acting as a point of contact within the club for external organisations on matters of safety and for promoting safety amongst the club members.
  - All Club Event Organisers are required to ensure that a safety risk assessment is completed prior to each Event and expects that any resultant action points be implemented during the Event.
  - All new club members have to undertake a safety assessment prior to being allowed to take part at their first Club event, unless they hold a recognised driving qualification.
  - The club committee regularly reviews matters relating to safety.
